SHORT SUMMARY OF THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 1 THE MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1973

The employment of children (i.e. persons under the age of 15 years) is prohibited except in ships in which only ment or training ships specially authorised by the Minister responsible for shipping or, in case of children not under the age of 15 years, has been given by the proper authority.

The employment of a person under the age of 18 years in a ship as fireman is prohibited except in school ships of training which are mainly propelled by other means than steam.

Where in any port a fireman or trimmer is required and no person over 18 years of age is available, young persons over 16 years must be employed to do the work which would otherwise be done by one person over 18 years of age.

This summary must be included in every engagement with the crew.
